

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
US ARMY INSTALLATION MANAGEMENT COMMAND
HEADQUARTERS, UNITED STATES ARMY GARRISON, FORT BLISS
1741 MARSHALL ROAD
FORT BLISS, TEXAS 79916-3803

IMBL-ZA

FEB 12 2015

POLICY MEMORANDUM # 9

SUBJECT: Command Religious Program

1. The spiritual development of Soldiers is a joint opportunity and challenge for the Garrison Commander and the Garrison Chaplain. The Garrison Commander is responsible for promoting this program, which provides for the religious needs and moral guidance of Soldiers assigned to units located on Fort Bliss.
2. Programs that can help include Worship Opportunities, Pastoral Care, Family Life Counseling and Enrichment Programs, Religious Education and Ministry of Presence.
3. Commanders and Directors will offer Soldiers and Civilians the opportunity to attend events which fulfill their religious needs. Leaders and supervisors will attempt to accommodate religious worship, dietary needs and medical practices as long as such activities does not create an adverse impact on their unit's mission accomplishment.
4. I appreciate every Commander and Director making every effort to ensure the religious needs of our Soldiers, Families and Department of the Army Civilians are met.
5. Point of contact for this memorandum is (915) 568-5031.

MIKE HESTER
COL, AR
Commanding