

U.S. v. Spc. Alan C. Kessler

Jan. 21, according to his pleas of guilty, a general court-martial convicted Spc. Alan C. Kessler, D Battery, 5-52 ADA Battalion, 11th ADA Brigade, of the larceny of $100,000 and conspiracy to commit that larceny. Kessler stole money from his unit by allowing an off-post business to falsely charge his government purchase card. The court sentenced him to be reprimanded, confined for five years, reduced to E1, to forfeit all pay and allowances, to pay a $10,000 fine, and to be discharged from the Army with a bad conduct discharge.

Source: The Monitor, February 27, 2003