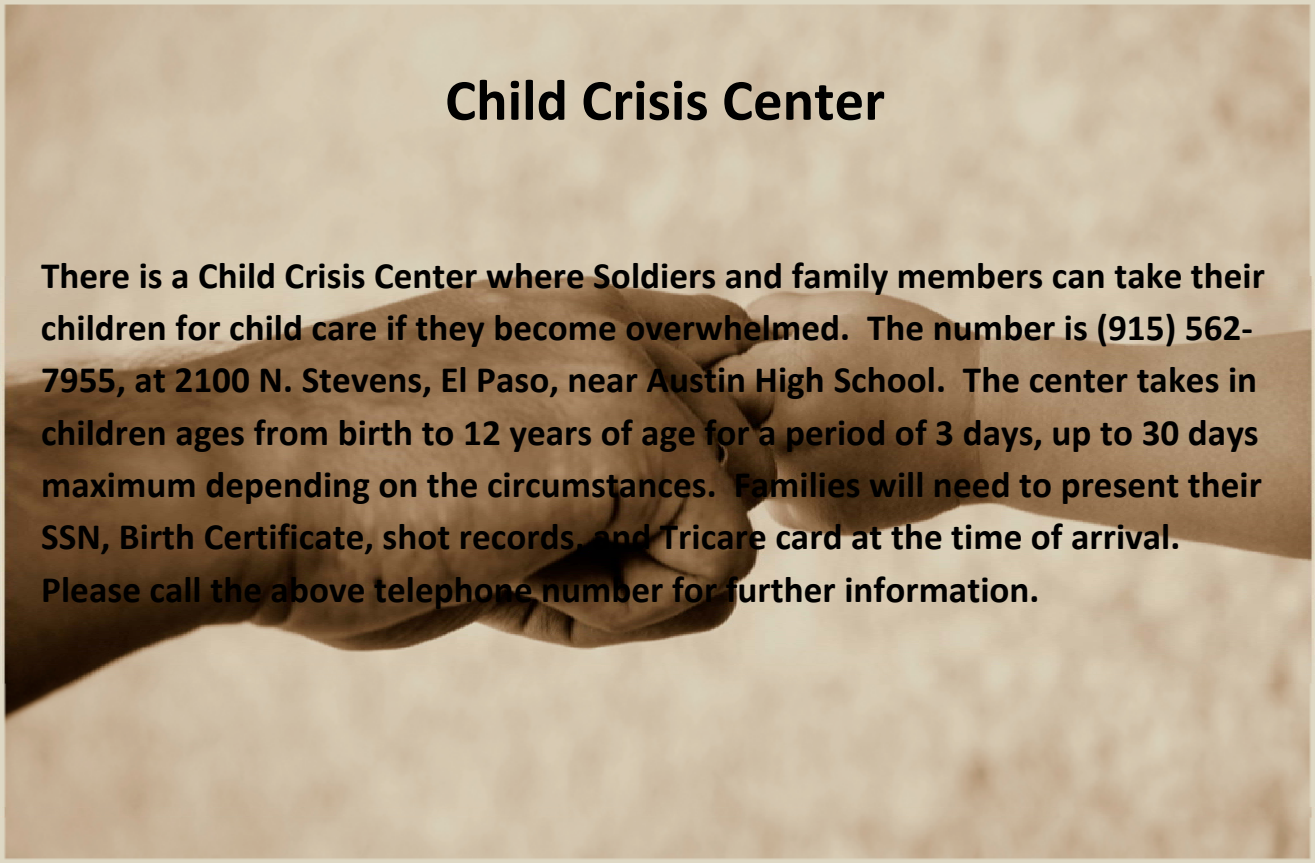
Child Crisis Center



There is a Child Crisis Center where Soldiers and family members can take their children for child care if they become overwhelmed. The number is (915) 562-7955, at 2100 N. Stevens, El Paso, near Austin High School. The center takes in children ages from birth to 12 years of age for a period of 3 days, up to 30 days maximum depending on the circumstances. Families will need to present their SSN, Birth Certificate, shot records, and Tricare card at the time of arrival. Please call the above telephone number for further information.