

Fort Bliss Antiterrorism/ Force Protection Program

Recognize & Report Insider Threat

See Something

Indicators

- Persons advocating support for a terrorist organization or cause.
- Persons expressing hatred for or advocating violence against American society or government.
- Persons purchasing explosive devices or bomb-making materials or seeking instructional information on their design and use.

What To Do

Be observant and attentive.

Remember details about people, places, conversations, and vehicles (include license plate numbers).

Say Something

Indicators

- Persons (without official sanction) repeatedly viewing websites that promote terrorism.
- Persons joking or bragging about association with a foreign intelligence service/terrorist group.
- Persons advocating loyalty to a foreign interest over loyalty to U.S.

If you spot any of the indicators above, report to the local Army Counterintelligence office at (915) 568-4604

A Simple Observation.

A Single Report can lead to actions that may STOP a terrorist attack.